A reassessment of the American Academy of Pediatrics, American College of Physicians, and American Academy of Family Physicians guidelines. The 1980 American Academy of Pediatrics, 1989 American College of Physicians, and 1993 American Academy of Family Physicians guidelines on anticipatory care of the newborn were reassessed to determine current practice and to identify changes in individual physicians' behavior since publication of the guidelines. A written survey was mailed to randomly selected physicians to determine their current practice, opinions, and experiences with the guidelines. Five hundred fifty physicians were mailed questionnaires, and 418 (76%) responded. In 1996, 58% of physician respondents had been in practice for > or = 10 years, and 6% 2, at ¶ 25, 39. ¶ 19 The jurisdictional analysis of the language and
